Our Motto : Believe, Be Seen, Become

Reflection... By Fr Jeronimo

Jesus tells us: "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." This statement invites us to reflect on the sacrificial love He has for us. In a world where we often feel lost or alone, it is comforting to know that we have a Shepherd who guides us, protects us, and cares deeply for our well-being.

The image of the shepherd and his sheep also invites us to consider our own response. How do we listen to the voice of Jesus in our lives? Are we willing to follow Him wherever He leads us, even when the path is difficult? The relationship between the shepherd and the sheep is a call to trust and surrender.

Additionally, this Sunday reminds us of the importance of being shepherds to one another. We are called to care for and guide those around us, to be a support and a source of love in the lives of others. In our communities, families, and relationships, we can reflect the love of the Good Shepherd.

As we reflect on this message, let us ask God to help us be sheep who listen to His voice and shepherds who act with love and compassion. May we experience the peace and security that come from knowing we are part of His flock, and that we are always under His care.

First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles 13 : 14, 43 - 52

Paul and Barnabas carried on from Perga till they reached Antioch in Pisidia. Here they went to synagogue on the sabbath and took their seats. When the meeting broke up, many Jews and devout converts joined Paul and Barnabas, and in their talks with them Paul and Barnabas urged them to remain faithful to the grace God had given them. The next sabbath almost the whole town assembled to hear the word of God. When they saw the crowds, the Jews, prompted by jealousy, used blasphemies and contradicted everything Paul said. Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, 'We had to proclaim the word of God to you first, but since you have rejected it, since you do not think yourselves worthy of eternal life, we must turn to the pagans. For this is what the Lord commanded us to do when he said: I have made you a light for the nations, so that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth.' It made the pagans very happy to hear this and they thanked the Lord for his message; all who were destined for eternal life became believers. Thus the word of the Lord spread through the whole countryside. But the Jews worked upon some of the devout women of the upper classes and the leading men of the city and persuaded them to turn against Paul and Barnabas and expel them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in defiance and went off to Iconium; but the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 99 : 1 - 3, 5 R. v.3

R: We are his people, the sheep of his flock

1. Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth. Serve the Lord with gladness. Come before him, singing for joy. R.
2. Know that he, the Lord, is God. He made us, we belong to him, we are his people, the sheep of his flock. R.
3. Indeed, how good is the Lord, eternal his merciful love. He is faithful from age to age. R.

Second Reading from the book of the Apocalypse Revelation 7 : 9, 14 - 17

I, John, saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. One of the elders said to me, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and because they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb, they now stand in front of God's throne and serve him day and night in his sanctuary; and the One who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them. They will never hunger or thirst again; neither the sun nor scorching wind will ever plague them, because the Lamb who is at the throne will be their shepherd and will lead them to springs of living water; and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 10 : 14

Alleluia, Alleluia! I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John 10: 27 - 30

Jesus said:

'The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice; I know them and they follow me. I give them eternal life; they will never be lost and no one will ever steal them from me. The Father who gave them to me is greater than anyone, and no one can steal from the Father. The Father and I are one.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
