GOSPEL REFLECTION

By Fr Michael Tate (Taken from Pastoral Liturgy)

Today's gospel reading is the most commonly misunderstood passage in the Gospels. It is usually read in a 'pat on the back' tone of voice, commending the widow for her generosity. But it should be read with the tone of white hot anger which Jesus had displayed against the money dealers whom he expelled from the temple only days earlier.

The vulnerable widow was exploited and brainwashed by the scribes and temple authorities so that she gave 'all she had to live on'. She was left destitute, unable to afford the necessities of life.

We could pause a moment to pray that, imitating the earliest Christian communities, our parish practises true concern for the marginalised and vulnerable, ensuring that they have all the necessities of life in all its dimensions.

FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

Tues 9 Nov—Dedication of the Lateran Basilica—The Lateran Basilica, the cathedral of the diocese of Rome, was dedicated to Christ the Saviour in the fourth century. It honours the local Church of Rome as a link with the earliest Christian tradition and as a sign of our communion in Christ.

Wed 10 Nov—St Leo the Great—He was elected pope in 440 and tried to protect the city of Rome from the devastation of barbarian invasion. He is remembered for the clarity of his thought on the two natures of Christ, for his eloquent sermons, and for the prayers he composed for the Roman liturgy. He died in 461.

Thurs 11 Nov—St Martin of Tours—Born in Hungary about 316 and was Bishop of Tours for twenty five years. Widely remembered for his legendary generosity to the poor, for arguing against persecution of heretics, and especially for his active evangelisation and pastoral care of rural areas. He died in 397.

Fri 12 Nov—St Josaphat—Born in the Ukraine in 1580. He was a Basilian monk who became archbishop of Polotsk. He is remembered for his energetic pastoral reform and courageous ecumenism. He died in 1623.

To all our Parishioners, the Bedford Conference of St Vincent de Paul thank you for your generosity last weekend. To date we have raised $3,169.70. This does not include monies from the Tap n Go and in the next 2 weeks we will report a final amount. Together with the $1,362 from St Peters Primary School, we expect that we will be very close to $5,000. You have all shown plenty of Love for your neighbour and we thank you for your continued support.

Those returning envelopes this weekend, please place in the Vinnies Poor box located either side of the church, and for those who would still like to donate, envelopes are in front of the Poor boxes or just drop your donation directly into the box.

Thank You & God Bless.

Good Neighbours

The next lunch for Good Neighbours is on Wednesday 10th November at the "Mighty Quinn Tavern", 112 Wanneroo Rd, Yokine at noon. Cost approximately $16-$18 for Seniors. Please advise Marie 9275 6307 of numbers attending ASAP.

Anyone requiring transport please ring Marie. All are very welcome.

Over the next few months, Fr Jeronimo together with your Parish Pastoral Committee (PPC) will be putting together the mission and vision of St Peter the Apostle Parish.

A questionnaire is being prepared and will be made available on the weekend of 27/28 November, either in hard copy or electronic link.

Your response and answers to these questions are very important. They will enable the PPC and Fr Jeronimo to listen to and plan for future Liturgy and evangelisation of the Parish.

Fr Jeronimo constantly reminds us that we are all on this journey together, so let us all have a voice and plan together as a community.

Thank you.

Hilda Tansley (Chair) PPC

This weekend St Peter's parish welcomes seminarians from St Charles' Seminary as well as the Rector, Fr Phillip Fleay, and the Vocations Director, Fr Israel Quirit. Please make them at home and give them big welcome to our parish.

A Reading from the first book of the Kings 17: 10-16

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said, 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives', she replied, 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel:

"Jar of meal shall not be spent,

jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth."

The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 145: 7-10

R: Praise the Lord, my soul!

1. It is the Lord who keeps faith forever who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord who sets prisoners free. R.
2. It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down. It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord who protects the stranger. R.
3. The Lord upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. R.

A Reading from the letter to the Hebrews 9: 24-28

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began.

Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself.

Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Matthew 5: 3

Alleluia, alleluia!! Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 12: 38-44

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called to his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
