GOSPEL REFLECTION

(Taken from Pastoral Liturgy)

Jesus does not offer us a guarantee of escape from suffering, in fact, Jesus suggests that it comes with following him. Jesus knows well and communicates to his followers that trouble comes with holding to the will of God. He says as much earlier in the same chapter from which our gospel reading comes, warning that believers will be beaten and arraigned before many "because of me" (13:9b).

Jesus' offer is hope and vision where there is none and a promise that all things do pass. Perhaps the knowledge that all things pass is the one thing we know even better when we experience trouble. However, Jesus' word, the saving Word of God, never passes - and this word is spoken to us and holds us all in existence. It is a voice into the dark telling us that there is light on the other side even though we cannot see it. It is a voice into emptiness telling us there is substance even when our feet have no footing. It is a voice of eternal love even when we feel lonely and abandoned. This word transcends time and space. It is ever present even when the world we seem to know is falling apart.

FEAST DAY THIS WEEK

Wed 17 Nov—St Elizabeth of Hungary—Born in Bratislava (Slovakia) in 1207. She was married at the age of fourteen, widowed at twenty and died at twenty four in Germany in 1231. Mother of three children and happily married to Ludwig of Thuringia who died of the plague while on crusade. She continued to protect the poor and founded orphanages and hospitals, living this life as a Franciscan tertiary despite the hostility of her relatives and the harshness of her confessor.

Remembered for her good-humoured resilience in adversity and for her humility in menial service of the needy.

This Sunday, 14th November, is "World Day of the Poor" specially chosen by Pope Francis for the launch of the Laudato Si Action Plan across the Catholic world. Let's pray, and see what we each of us and our parish might do.

The Archbishop's Christmas Appeal for LifeLink is being held throughout the Archdiocese this weekend. If you did not collect Archbishop Costelloe's letter at Mass last weekend, please collect one as you leave Mass today—or, use one of the special giving envelopes which has been provided on the pews today.

We urge you to give generous support to help the work of our Archdiocesan social service agencies and our brothers and sisters who are struggling in the community.

You may return your gift in the Reply paid envelope provided or return your envelope and donation to the parish at any time over the coming weeks.

A Reading from the prophet Daniel 12: 1-3

'At that time Michael will stand up, the great prince who mounts guard over your people. There is going to be a time of great distress, unparalleled since nations first came into existence. When that time comes, your own people will be spared, all those whose names are found written in the Book. Of those who lie sleeping in the dust of the earth many will awake, some to everlasting life, some to shame and everlasting disgrace. The learned will shine as brightly as the vault of heaven, and those who have instructed many in virtue, as bright as stars for all eternity.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 15: 5, 8-11

R: Keep me safe, O God: you are my hope.

- O Lord, it is you who are my portion and cup;
it is you yourself who are my prize.
I keep the Lord ever in my sight:
since he is at my right hand, I shall stand firm. R.
- And so my heart rejoices, my soul is glad;
even my body shall rest in safety.
For you will not leave my soul among the dead,
nor let your beloved know decay. R.
- You will show me the path of life,
the fullness of joy in your presence,
at your right hand happiness forever. R.

A Reading from the letter to the Hebrews 10: 11-14, 18

All the priests stand at their duties every day, offering over and over again the same sacrifices which are quite incapable of taking sins away. Christ, on the other hand, has offered one single sacrifice for sins, and then taken his place for ever, at the right hand of God, where he is now waiting until his enemies are made into a footstool for him. By virtue of that one single offering, he has achieved the eternal perfection of all whom he is sanctifying. When all sins have been forgiven, there can be no more sin offerings.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Luke 21: 36

Alleluia, alleluia!! Be watchful, and pray constantly, that you may be worthy to stand before the Son of Man. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 13: 24-32

Jesus said to his disciples: 'In those days, after the time of distress, the sun will be darkened, the moon will lose its brightness, the stars will come falling from heaven and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory; then too he will send the angels to gather his chosen from the four winds, from the ends of the world to the ends of heaven.

'Take the fig tree as a parable: as soon as its twigs grow supple and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. So with you, when you see these things happening: know that he is near, at the very gates. I tell you solemnly, before this generation has passed away all these things will have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

'But as for that day or hour, nobody knows it, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son; no one but the Father.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
