REFLECTION

By Dianne Bergant CSA —Liturgy Help

Paul teaches us that, united to Christ through faith and in baptism, we are united in his death and resurrection. With Christ we die to sin; with him we rise to a new life. We cannot wait to see proof of our transformation before we change our actions. The proof is in the lives we live in faith. To deny that we have died and been raised is to deny the resurrection of Christ. Paul insists that they cannot be separated. The challenge is to live in and out of this faith.

Both Jeremiah and Jesus introduce us to such a way of living. It is a way of paradox, a way that moves us beyond the self-centred standards of the world. The poor, the hungry, those who weep, and those who are persecuted are really the ones who are blessed. The victims of our social and economic systems, those who have been ravaged by war or have been made vulnerable by life itself are the ones who, if they place their trust in God, will be blessed in the end.

They may appear to be the outcasts of this world, but, if they are filled with faith, they will inherit heaven. The wealth of this world and its pleasures are not the blessings that we might think they are. They can blind us to the real values of life and prevent us from dying to the world and living resurrected lives in Christ.

Feast Day this week

Mon 14—Sts Cyril & Methodius—Cyril, born about 826 in Thessalonica (Greece) and died in Rome in 869, His brother, Methodius, was born about 815 and died in Velhrad ((Czech Republic) in 885.

With papal approval they preached the gospel in Moravia using their own translations of the Scriptures and the liturgy of the local language. Remembered together for their contribution to Slavic culture, for their missionary inculturation of the faith, and for establishing links between East and West.

Welcome back Fr Jeronimo, your parish community missed you! We sincerely pray that your mum's health will progress in the right direction from here on.

We understand that you are in self isolation so we look forward to seeing you back in the church and joining the community again.

THANK YOU

On behalf of Fr Jeronimo and the Parish Council we offer a sincere and warm thank you to Fr Greg Donovan for being our supply priest and sharing your week-days and week-ends at St Peter the Apostle and celebrating Mass with our community.

Thank you also to Fr John, Fr Israel, Fr Renald, and Bishop Don who also assisted at those times when Fr Greg was not available.

Thank you also to those who assisted with Communion Services.

PREP (Parish RE Programme)

For children who wish to receive First Reconciliation, First Communion or Confirmation and require preparation lessons, please contact Chris Neville (nevillechristine191@gmail.com) as soon as possible. Classes will begin very soon and run every Tues 4-5pm. Attendance is a requirement of receiving a Sacrament so it is imperative that your child joins the class at the start of the learning programme.

The St Vincent de Paul Bedford Conference is assisting two families, one requires a fridge and one a television.

If any parishioner has either of these items they are no longer using and are willing to donate it, please contact Charlie—0419 135, 927.

It would be very much appreciated.

4 Mar WORLD DAY OF PRAYER SERVICE

The World Day of Prayer is a global ecumenical movement led by Christian women who welcome you to join in prayer and action for peace and justice. The next service is on Thursday 4 March.

Children's Liturgy

Due to a number of issues, a decision has been made not to conduct the Children's Liturgy group at the 8.30am Mass on Sundays for term one.

We will re-assess the situation in term two when suitable premises may become available closer to the time.

Baptism Preparation Session

If you wish to have your child baptised in our parish, it is a requirement that parents and godparents attend a preparation session prior to Baptism.

The session dates for 2022 are as follows:

Sundays—13 February, 15 May, 17 July, 11 September and 13 November 2022

Please contact the parish office— 0492 091 376— for more details.

A Reading from the prophet Jeremiah 17: 5-8

The Lord says this:

'A curse on the man who puts his trust in man, who relies on things of flesh, whose heart turns from the Lord. He is like dry scrub in the wastelands: if good comes, he has no eyes for it, he settles in the parched places of the wilderness, a salt land, uninhabited.

'A blessing on the man who puts his trust in the Lord, with the Lord for his hope. He is like a tree by the waterside that thrusts its roots to the stream; when the heat comes it feels no alarm, its foliage stays green; it has no worries in a year of drought, and never ceases to bear fruit.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 1: 1-4

R: Happy are they who hope in the Lord.

- Happy indeed is the man who follows
not the counsel of the wicked;
nor lingers in the way of sinners
nor sits in the company of scorners,
but whose delight is the law of the Lord
and who ponders his law day and night. R.
- He is like a tree that is planted
beside the flowing waters,
that yields its fruit in due season
and whose leaves shall never fade;
and all that he does shall prosper. R.
- Not so are the wicked, not so!
For they like winnowed chaff
shall be driven away by the wind.
For the Lord guards the way of the just but the way of the wicked leads to doom. R.

A Reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians 15: 12. 16: 20.

If Christ raised from the dead is what has been preached, how can some of you be saying that there is no resurrection of the dead? For if the dead are not raised, Christ has not been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, you are still in your sins. And what is more serious, all who have died in Christ have perished. If our hope in Christ has been for this life only, we are the most unfortunate of all people.

But Christ has in fact been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Luke 6: 23

Alleluia, alleluia! Rejoice and be glad; your reward is great in heaven. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 6: 17. 20-26

Jesus came down with the Twelve and stopped at a piece of level ground where there was a large gathering of his disciples with a great crowd of people from all parts of Judaea and from Jerusalem and from the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon who had come to hear him and to be cured of their diseases.

Then fixing his eyes on his disciples he said:

'How happy are you who are poor; yours is the kingdom of God.

Happy you who are hungry now: you shall be satisfied.

Happy you who weep now: you shall laugh.

'Happy are you when people hate you, drive you out, abuse you, denounce your name as criminal, on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice when that day comes and dance for joy, for then your reward will be great in heaven. This was the way their ancestors treated the prophets.

'But alas for you who are rich: you are having your consolation now. Alas for you who have your fill now: you shall go hungry. Alas for you who laugh now: you shall mourn and weep.

'Alas for you when the world speaks well of you! This was the way their ancestors treated the false prophets.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
