OUR LENTEN SANCTUARY

You may notice that our beautiful Sanctuary is looking bare with only the colour Purple being very evident.

Of course in keeping with Lent there are no flowers. You may also notice some small changes to our Liturgy, they are:

- No Glory Be To God
- No Alleluia

Lent is a time of reflection for us all as a time to grow closer to God.

TREE RIPENED APPLE DRIVE

At the end of April (when apples ripen) the social committee are running an apple drive - deliciously, naturally tree ripened apples sourced directly from the grower. We will have Granny Smiths (green) & a red variety. The cost will be $5.00 for approx 1 kg.

Orders must be placed & paid for by 10th April to make sure no one misses out. Orders will be taken by a social committee member before & after mass at the back of the church from 5th March.

Baptisms

Last week we welcomed Valentina Beins and Anaiah Billingslea to God's family.

Congratulations to Valentina and Anaiah and their families.

St Peter the Apostle Web Site

A reminder that we have a new web site, it is

<https://www.petertheapostle.org>

It has come to our attention that parishioners are trying to connect to our old web site which comes up with an error message.

Thank you all for your patience

Baptism Preparation Session

If you wish to have your child baptised in our parish, it is a requirement that parents and godparents attend a preparation session prior to Baptism.

The session dates for 2022 are as follows:

A Reading from the book of Deuteronomy 26: 4-10

Moses said to the people: 'The priest shall take the panner from your hand and lay it before the altar of the Lord your God. Then, in the sight of the Lord your God, you must make this pronouncement:

"My father was a wandering Aramaean. He went down into Egypt to find refuge there, few in numbers; but there he became a nation, great, mighty, and strong. The Egyptians ill-treated us, they gave us no peace and inflicted harsh slavery on us. But we called on the Lord, the God of our fathers. The Lord heard our voice and saw our misery, our toil and our oppression; and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with mighty hand and outstretched arm, with great terror, and with signs and wonders. He brought us here and gave us this land, a land where milk and honey flow. Here then I bring the first-fruits of the produce of the soil that you, Lord, have given me." You must then lay them before the Lord your God, and bow down in the sight of the Lord your God.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 90: 1-2, 10-15

R: Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble.

1. He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: 'My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!' R.
2. Upon you no evil shall fall,
no plague approach where you dwell.
For you has he commanded his angels,
to keep you in all your ways. R.
3. They shall bear you upon their hands
lest you strike your foot against a stone.
On the lion and the viper you will tread and trample the young lion and the dragon. R.
4. His love he set on me, so I will rescue him;
protect him for he knows my name.
When he calls I shall answer:
'I am with you.'
I will save him in distress and give him glory. R.

A Reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 10: 8-13

Scripture says: The word, that is the faith we proclaim, is very near to you, it is on your lips and in your heart. If your lips confess that Jesus is Lord and if you believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, then you will be saved. By believing from the heart you are made righteous; by confessing with your lips you are saved. When scripture says: those who believe in him will have no cause for shame, it makes no distinction between Jew and Greek: all belong to the same Lord who is rich enough, however many ask for his help, for everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Matthew 4: 4

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 4: 1-13

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit through the wilderness, being tempted there by the devil for forty days. During that time he ate nothing and at the end he was hungry. Then the devil said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to turn into a loaf.' But Jesus replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone.'

Then leading him to a height, the devil showed him in a moment of time all the kingdoms of the world and said to him, 'I will give you all this power and the glory of these kingdoms, for it has been committed to me and I give it to anyone I choose. Worship me, then, and it shall all be yours.' But Jesus answered him, 'Scripture says: You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.'

Then he led him to Jerusalem and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God', he said to him 'throw yourself down from here, for scripture says: He will put his angels in charge of you to guard you, and again: They will hold you up on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

But Jesus answered him, 'It has been said: You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Having exhausted all these ways of tempting him, the devil left him, to return at the appointed time.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
