GOSPEL REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSS

We have been in the in-between time since the Ascension of the Lord. Today we celebrate the dramatic inbreaking of the time of fulfilment. We celebrate the fullness of the Spirit and the great gathering of nations. The feast also brings the Easter season to its conclusion. Today's readings recapitulate many themes that appeared throughout the Easter season: Christology, Trinitarian theology, reign of God, repentance, salvation, mission, universality. All are brought together as we are brought together into the body of Christ.

The plan of salvation has been brought to its conclusion. Christ is exalted next to God and has sent his Spirit to fill the earth with God's power. The world is charged with divine energy; it needs but a spark to ignite it with life and with excitement. This vitality explodes into the extraordinary: tongues are loosed and speech overflows its linguistic constraints; charismatic gifts flood the valleys of human habitation; barred doors are burst open and frightened hearts are calmed. The Spirit of the Lord fills the whole world.

We gather together to discover that God has gathered us for another. Strangers assemble to fulfil personal obligations and they experience a phenomenon that bonds them together for life. Individual religious devotion is swept up into communal divine revelation. Through the Spirit of God, we are reconciled to each other and then together we spend ourselves for the common good. The world is renewed; the community is revitalised; we come to know the mysterious yet all pervasive peace of Christ.

Feast Days this week.....

Mon 6 June—The Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church—Christ on the cross entrusted his mother to St John: This is your mother. The memorial, on the day after Pentecost, remembers her maternal presence among the disciples of Christ from the beginning.

Fri 11 June—St Barnabas—A Jew from Cyprus and one of the first converts in Jerusalem, he was a leading member of the Church there, though not one of the twelve. He introduced St Paul to the twelve and worked with him in Antioch and on missionary work in the Mediterranean world. He championed the Gentiles at the Council of Jerusalem and is remembered as 'a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith.'

It is not known when he died, but according to tradition his remains were discovered on this day sometime in the fifth century.

CONGRATULATIONS Fr Jeronimo Flamenco

On behalf of St Peter the Apostle Combined Parish Ministries and Parish community, congratulations on the 13th Anniversary of your ordination of Priestly Life 05 June 2009.

Thank you for all your hard work in our parish, your innovative ideas in making our community feel welcomed and in your own words being the bridge in bringing us all closer to God.

Wishing you many blessings today and always.

From St Peter the Apostle Community

Good Neighbors

The next Good Neighbours Lunch will be held on Wednesday 15th June at 12 noon at “Bethanie”, 2 Plantation Street, Menora.

Please advise numbers attending by 11th June to Marie—9275 6307—and if anyone requires transport. All are very welcome

We would like to thank Kieran Daly from 'The Peoples Produce' whose generosity enabled us to raise $910 for the church building fund from the Apple drive. He has a stall at the Kyilla market on the corner closest to the Kyilla primary school (the North West corner.) His website is 'the peoples produce' and online orders are delivered free to our area weekly.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES

Envelopes for the year commencing 1 July 2022 are now being prepared and will be available for pick up mid-June.

The income from Planned Giving Envelopes is the only assured financial income of the parish. The parish is dependent on this income for the running costs, repairs and improvements of the church, presbytery, and hall. Parishioners who are not at present using envelopes are asked to consider requesting a set by completing a form available at the back of the church and placing it in the collection plate.

For existing and new givers who would like to contribute electronically, please take one of the yellow cards at the back of the church, fill in the details and mark it ‘DIRECT DEBIT’. These can be placed in the second collection plate at any of the weekend Masses, and the office will contact you shortly with the bank details.

Details for on-line giving are also available at the back of the church.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles 2: 1-11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. ‘Surely’ they said ‘all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native-language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.’

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm : 103: 1, 24, 29-31, 34

R: Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

1. Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord!
The earth is full of your riches.

R.

2. You take back your spirit, they die,
returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth.

R.

3. May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord.

R.

A Reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 8: 8-17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

o then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, ‘Abba, Father!’ The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit; fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John 14: 15-16, 23-26

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘If you love me you will keep my commandments. I shall ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate to be with you for ever.

If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own; it is the word of the one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have said to you.’

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
