GOSPEL REFLECTION by Dianne Bergant CSS

Both the first reading and the psalm response celebrate the marvels of creation and the marvelous creator who brought them into being. Proverbs states that God created all of these things through Wisdom. While later theology will identify Wisdom with both the Word of God, the second person of the Trinity, and the Holy Spirit, the third person, the reading itself does not suggest this.

Paul credits God with our justification through faith. Justification or salvation is accomplished by God through our Lord Jesus Christ. The love of God is poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. Paul does not clearly state that the love of God that we receive through the Holy Spirit sanctifies us, but one could certainly understand it in this way.

John's theology resembles very closely that of Paul. In it, Jesus reveals the intimate connection between himself and the Father as well as himself and the Spirit. The Spirit continues the mission of Jesus, neither adding anything to his teaching nor omitting anything from it.

While this is a feast that glorifies the central mystery of our faith, a mystery that is based on the way the three divine persons relate to each other, the readings all address ways that God relates to us. If we concentrate, as the texts for today suggest that we do, on all of the ways that our Triune God has blessed us, we may be more inclined to cry out with the psalmist: 'O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!'

Feast Day this week.....

Mon 13 June—St Anthony of Padua— Born in Lisbon (Portugal) in 1195, he was first an Augustinian priest and scholar, and then became a Franciscan to do missionary work in north Africa but was thwarted by illness.

Instead, he became a teacher of theology and a brilliant popular preacher in southern France and Italy. He is remembered and loved as an inspired preacher, a servant of the poor and a worker of miracles. He died in 1231.

We congratulate St Peter's Year 3 and After School Class students who received the Sacrament of Reconciliation at Masses last week.

We also thank the school staff, catechists and the Sacrament co-ordinator, Marina Tassone, for their hard work and efforts in preparing the children for this Sacrament.

Good Neighbors

The next Good Neighbours Lunch will be held on Wednesday 15th June at 12 noon at "Bethanie", 2 Plantation Street, Menora.

Please advise numbers attending to Marie—9275 6307—and if anyone requires transport. All are very welcome

Baptisms

Last weekend we welcomed Thomas Gerrick and Finn Martin to God's family in Baptism.

Congratulations to Thomas and Finn and their families.

Baptism Preparation Session

If you wish to have your child baptised in our parish, it is a requirement that parents and god-parents attend a preparation session prior to Baptism.

The session dates for 2022 are as follows:

Sundays—10 July, 11 September and 13 November 2022

Please contact the parish office—
0492 091 376—for more details.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES

Envelopes for the year commencing 1 July 2022 are now being prepared and will be available for pick up next weekend.

The income from Planned Giving Envelopes is the only assured financial income of the parish. The parish is dependent on this income for the running costs, repairs and improvements of the church, presbytery, and hall. Parishioners who are not at present using envelopes are asked to consider requesting a set by completing a form available at the back of the church and placing it in the collection plate.

For existing and new givers who would like to contribute electronically, please take one of the yellow cards at the back of the church, fill in the details and mark it 'DIRECT DEBIT'. These can be placed in the second collection plate at any of the weekend Masses, and the office will contact you shortly with the bank details.

Details for on-line giving are also available at the back of the church.

A Reading from the book of Proverbs 8: 22-31

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works.

From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being.

The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water.

Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust.

When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries – and the waters will not invade the shore – when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm : 8: 4-9

R: O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

1. When I see the heavens, the work of your hands, the moon and the stars which you arranged, what is man that you should keep him in mind, mortal man that you care for him? R.

2. Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honour you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hand, put all things under his feet. R.

3. All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters. R.

A Reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 5: 1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Apocalypse 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John 16: 12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now.

But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
