GOSPEL REFLECTION

by Dianne Bergant CSA

Women and men are gathered into the community of the saved, primarily because others have been sent out to get them. The psalm refrain is the command to go out to the whole world. The first reading describes God sending fugitives back home to get their relatives. People come from all over because someone is sent to get them. Today that command is directed to us.

We are the ones who are being sent out to bring others to God. Unfortunately there are many people who do not believe that they are fit to be evangelisers. They may think that the work that they do or the lives that they live do not lend themselves to the task of spreading the good news of the gospel. They do not realise that all Christians are called and sent. This is not an option; it is a responsibility.

Feast Days this week.....

Mon 22 Aug—The Queenship of Blessed Virgin Mary—This feast was established by Pius XI to stress its relationship to the Assumption: taken up into glory, Mary became queen of heaven and earth.

Wed 24 Aug—St Bartholomew—Named in the list of apostles and generally identified with Nathaniel of Cana, the 'Israelite without guile', who was led to Jesus by the apostle Philip. Said to have preached the gospel in India and in Armenia, where tradition dictates he was martyred.

Sat 27 Aug—St Monica—Probably born in Algeria about 331. Before her marriage her faith bore fruit in her recovery from a drinking problem and later helped bring her husband and mother-in-law to Christianity.

She undertook many years of penance and prayer for her brilliant but wayward son, St Augustine. Following his conversion and baptism in Milan, she died at the beginning of her journey home to Africa. Remembered for her parental devotion, her patience, and her persistence in prayer. She died in 387.

This weekend at separate Masses we welcomed children who received the Body of Christ for the first time. Our church was a joy-filled place as their family and friends joined us in celebrating this special step in their journey to know Jesus better, We pray they will always carry Jesus in their hearts.

The Parish is seeking any "First Aiders" or medical background personnel (e.g., first responders, paramedics, etc.) within the parish community who would like to be involved in the health and safety in the parish.

If you are interested, please contact the parish office, and leave your contact details (email—stpetersoffice@westnet.com.au) and our health and safety coordinator will be in contact with you to further discuss this volunteer work.

Thanks for your participation in the parish.

St Vincent de Paul Winter Appeal

To our very generous parishioners a very BIG THANK YOU again with over $5,300 raised in this year's Appeal. We cannot do our work without your support, you help us put a smile on so many faces. The Appeal will close off on the weekend of 27/28 August so if you have not yet donated but still wish to do so, envelopes are at the back of the church, just place them in the Vinnies box on the Salisbury Street side of the church.

Food Pantry: Again thanks to those who leave food in the baskets at the back, we are currently short on tea, coffee, sugar and pasta sauce, so if you can assist please drop into the baskets at the back of the church.

If any assistance is required, please contact Charlie McGettigan—0419 135 927.

Baptisms

Last week we welcomed Harry Eames, Olive Ridley and Addison Rickman to God's family in Baptism.

We congratulate Harry, Olive and Addison and their families.

There are still a number of Planned Giving envelopes for 2022/23 that have not been picked up.

They are at the back of the church—Wood St side—and will be removed shortly, so please check if they are yours.

Baptism Preparation Session

If you wish to have your child baptised in our parish, it is a requirement that parents and god-parents attend a preparation session prior to baptism.

The remaining dates for 2022 are:

Sundays—18 September and 27 November

Please contact the parish office—stpetersoffice@westnet.com.au for more details.

A Reading from the prophet Isaiah 66:18-21

The Lord says this: I am coming to gather the nations of every language. They shall come to witness my glory. I will give them a sign and send some of their survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Put, Lud, Moshech, Rosh, Tubal, and Javan, to the distant islands that have never heard of me or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory to the nations.

As an offering to the Lord they will bring all your brothers, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, on dromedaries, from all the nations to my holy mountain in Jerusalem, says the Lord, like Israelites bringing oblations in clean vessels to the Temple of the Lord. And of some of them I will make priests and Levites, says the Lord.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: 116

R: Go out to all the world and tell the Good News.

- O praise the Lord, all you nations, acclaim him all you peoples. R.
- Strong is his love for us: he is faithful for ever. R.

A Reading from the letter to the Hebrews 12: 5-7, 11-13

Have you forgotten that encouraging text in which you are addressed as sons? My son, when the Lord corrects you, do not treat it lightly; but do not get discouraged when he reprimands you. For the Lord trains the ones that he loves and he punishes all those that he acknowledges as his sons.

Suffering is part of your training; God is treating you as his sons. Has there ever been any son whose father did not train him? Of course, any punishment is most painful at the time, and far from pleasant; but later, in those on whom it has been used, it bears fruit in peace and goodness. So hold up your limp arms and steady your trembling knees and smooth out the path you tread; then the injured limb will not be wrenched, it will grow strong again.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: John 14: 6

Alleluia, alleluia! I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord; Alleluia, alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 13: 22-30

Through towns and villages Jesus went teaching, making his way to Jerusalem. Someone said to him, 'Sir, will there be only a few saved?' He said to them, 'Try your best to enter by the narrow door, because, I tell you, many will try to enter and will not succeed. Once the master of the house has got up and locked the door, you may find yourself knocking on the door, saying, "Lord, open to us" but he will answer, "I do not know where you come from." Then you will find yourself saying, "We once ate and drank in your company; you taught in our streets" but he will reply, "I do not know where you come from. Away from me, all you wicked men!" Then there will be weeping and grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves turned outside. And men from east and west, from north and south, will come to take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.

Yes, there are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
