Palm Sunday - Year B

Our Motto : Believe, Be Seen, Become

Gospel Reflection

PALM SUNDAY YEAR B

Mark 14: 1 – 15:47

THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Today's Gospel reminds us of the Passion of the Lord and the betrayal by Peter.

How does Christ's Passion story reflect the reality of human existence? Is this The Greatest Story Ever Told? The centurion is the voice of the gentile – the non-Jew – representing all those throughout the world, all of us, how do we recognise the truth of Jesus' life today!

Palm Sunday 23 & 24 March

As Project Compassion 2024 comes to an end, we want to thank you for your incredibly generous support throughout Lent.

This year, we shared with you the story of three inspiring women from across the globe, who overcame challenges to complete their education, access water and find secure employment. With the support of compassionate people like you, they are now forging a path to a better future for their families and their communities.

There is still time to donate! Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow, for all future generations.

Please donate to Project Compassion

You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes or by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion or by calling 1800 024 413.

A Reading from the prophet Isaiah 50 : 4 - 7

The Lord has given me a disciple's tongue. So that I may know how to reply to the wearied he provides me with speech. Each morning he wakes me to hear, to listen like a disciple. The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 21:8-9, 17-20, 23-24. R. v.2

R : My God, my God why have you abandoned me?

1. All who see me deride me. They curl their lips, they toss their heads. 'He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend.' R.
2. Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me. They tear holes in my hands and my feet. I can count every one of my bones. R.
3. They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe. O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me! R.
4. I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled. 'You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel's sons.' R.

A Reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians 2 : 6 - 11

His state was divine, yet Christ Jesus did not cling to his equality with God but emptied himself to assume the condition of a slave, and became as men are, and being as all men are, he was humbler yet, even to accepting death, death on a cross. But God raised him high and gave him the name which is above all other names so that all beings in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Philippians 2 : 8 - 9

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! Christ became obedient for us even to death dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 14 : 1 - 15, 47

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
