EASTER Sunday -
Year B

Our Motto : Believe, Be Seen, Become

!!! HAPPY EASTER TO EVERYONE !!!

Easter message

Dear Parishioners of Saint Peter,

I was reflecting on the Pascal Candle last night that brought light and life into this dark night in our Christian community. I was thinking about the brightness that this pascal candle is bringing to us, and I see a connection between our pascal candle and our faith. Saint Francis de Sales reminds us that “Faith is like a bright ray of sunlight. It enables us to see God in all things as well as all things in God.”

This Easter, I invite you to rediscover the power of your faith as a light which can dispel the darkness that can exist in our life.

This is what we are called as Christians to proclaim and live. As an Easter People, let us proclaim the resurrected Christ knowing that he has brought forth life from death, light from darkness, and hope from despair.

As Saint John Paul II says, “do not abandon yourselves to despair” Remember my dear parishioners we are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song.

May God bless you with abundant faith, serenity, hope, and the peace that God gives to the whole world this Easter.

A very happy Easter to you all.

Fr. Jeronimo Flamenco
PP Saint Peter Bedford

EASTER SUNDAY READINGS

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles 10 : 34, 37 - 43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 117:1-2. 16-17. 22-23. R. v.24

R : This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

1. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end. Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.' R.
2. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up. I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. R.
3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. R.

A Reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians 3 : 1 - 4

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Sequence

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise. The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb; and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled. Death with life contended: combat strangely ended! Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign. Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way. The tomb the Living did enclose; I saw Christ's glory as he rose! The angels there attesting; shroud with grave-clothes resting. Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee. That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know. Victorious king, thy mercy show!

Gospel Acclamation: 1 Corinthians 5 : 7 - 8

Alleluia, Alleluia! Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John 20:1-9

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.' So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
