Gospel Reflection By Nick Brodie based on Pope Francis (Liturgy Help)

‘You put aside the commandment of God,’ warned Jesus, ‘to cling to human traditions.’ One of the sharpest lines in the Gospel, this is a watchword for every Christian generation. ‘In today’s passage,’ Pope Francis says, ‘Jesus addresses an important topic for all of us believers: the authenticity of our obedience to the Word of God, against any worldly contamination or legalistic formalism.’ As the Pope suggests, ‘those challenging him seek to strike at the reliability and authority of Jesus as Teacher.’ The religious leaders who questioned Jesus on technical points of ritual had deluded themselves about what was essential. The Pope points out that ‘Jesus wants to rouse the scribes and Pharisees from the error they have fallen into.’ Christ’s sharp words are intended to turn people from ‘distorting God’s will, neglecting his commandments in order to observe human traditions.’

‘Today too,’ the Pope reminds us, ‘the Lord invites us to avoid the danger of giving more importance to form than to substance. He calls us to recognise, ever anew, what is the true core of the experience of faith, that is, love of God and love of neighbour.’

A Reading from the book of Deuteronomy
4 : 1 - 2, 6 - 8

Moses said to the people: 'Now, Israel, take notice of the laws and customs that I teach you today, and observe them, that you may have life and may enter and take possession of the land that the Lord the God of your fathers is giving you. You must add nothing to what I command you, and take nothing from it, but keep the commandments of the Lord your God just as I lay them down for you. Keep them, observe them, and they will demonstrate to the peoples your wisdom and understanding. When they come to know of all these laws they will exclaim, "No other people is as wise and prudent as this great nation." And indeed, what great nation is there that has its gods so near as the Lord our God is to us whenever we call to him? And what great nation is there that has laws and customs to match this whole Law that I put before you today?'

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 14:2-5. R. v.1

R: The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

1. Lord, who shall dwell on your holy mountain? He who walks with out fault; he who acts with justice and speaks the truth from his heart. R.
2. He who does no wrong to his brother, who casts no slur on his neighbour, who holds the godless in disdain, but honours those who fear the Lord. R.
3. He who keeps his pledge, come what may; who takes no interest on a loan and accepts no bribes against the innocent. Such a man will stand firm for ever. R.

A Reading from the letter of St James
1 : 17 - 18, 21 - 22, 27

It is all that is good, everything that is perfect, which is given us from above; it comes down from the Father of all light; with him there is no such thing as alteration, no shadow of a change. By his own choice he made us his children by the message of the truth so that we should be a sort of first-fruits of all that he had created. Accept and submit to the word which has been planted in you and can save your souls. But you must do what the word tells you, and not just listen to it and deceive yourselves. Pure, unspoilt religion, in the eyes of God our Father is this: coming to the help of orphans and widows when they need it, and keeping oneself uncontaminated by the world.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation James 1 : 18

Alleluia, Alleluia! The Father gave us birth by his message of truth, that we might be as the first fruits of his creation. Alleluia!

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark 7 : 1 - 8, 14 - 15, 21 - 23

The Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered round Jesus, and they noticed that some of his disciples were eating with unclean hands, that is, without washing them. For the Pharisees, and the Jews in general, follow the tradition of the elders and never eat without washing their arms as far as the elbow; and on returning from the market place they never eat without first sprinkling themselves. There are also many other observances which have been handed down to them concerning the washing of cups and pots and bronze dishes. So these Pharisees and scribes asked him, 'Why do your disciples not respect the tradition of the elders but eat their food with unclean hands?' He answered, 'It was of you hypocrites that Isaiah so rightly prophesied in this passage of scripture: This people honours me only with lip-service, while their hearts are far from me. The worship they offer me is worthless, the doctrines they teach are only human regulations. You put aside the commandment of God to cling to human traditions.' He called the people to him again and said, 'Listen to me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that goes into a man from outside can make him unclean; it is the things that come out of a man that make him unclean. For it is from within, from men's hearts, that evil intentions emerge: fornication, theft, murder, adultery, avarice, malice, deceit, indecency, envy, slander, pride, folly. All these evil things come from within and make a man unclean.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Happy Father's Day ...

... to all the wonderful supportive Dads
... to anyone who has lost their Dad or Father Figure
... to those who have strained Father relationships
... to all the amazing Step-Dads out there
... to a single Dad raising kids on their own
... to all the wonderful foster Dads
... to the new Dads adjusting to Fatherhood
... to anyone who can't be with their Dad, or just need a little extra love today.

"Happy Father's Day to all the dads, the not yet dads, the stepdads, the moms who are dad, the adoptive dads, the granddads, and the dads who are no longer with us."
