Reflection... By Fr Jeronimo

"Holy Spirit, Living Memory of Christ and Missionary Force of the Church"

Without the Holy Spirit, there is no living Church, no communion, no mission. Pentecost is the feast of our Christian identity and responsibility. Fifty days after Easter, the Holy Spirit descends upon the Apostles, transforming them from fearful disciples into strong witnesses. The Holy Spirit brings unity in diversity, a single message proclaimed in many languages. The Church is born missionary, alert, and in mission. Let us remember that Pentecost is the full fruit of Easter. I believe that the Church cannot exist without the Holy Spirit. Because the Church is not a human institution, but a community enlivened from above. Where there is the Spirit, there is living faith, united mission, and forgiveness. The Spirit is the living memory of Christ. The Spirit reminds us of what Jesus said, leads us to the full Truth, and makes the gestures and words of the Master present to us. Without the Spirit, faith becomes ideology; with the Spirit, faith becomes life and testimony. The Christian community is not uniformity, but diversity reconciled by love. We all have a charisma, we are all necessary, and we all serve in the Kingdom of God.

Brothers and sisters, today we celebrate not just a remembrance, but a presence. The Spirit is here, encourages us, transforms us, and sends us into the world. May Pentecost not be a fire-work that fades away, but a true flame that ignites in our lives, in our Church, in our world. Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

What is the role of the Holy Spirit in your life?

First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles 2 : 1 - 11

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech. Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. ‘Surely’ they said ‘all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome – Jews and proselytes alike – Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.’

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 103:1, 24, 29-31, 34 R. v.30

R : Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth

1. Bless the Lord, my soul! Lord God, how great you are, How many are your works, O Lord! The earth is full of your riches. R.
2. You take back your spirit, they die, returning to the dust from which they came. You send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth. R.
3. May the glory of the Lord last for ever! May the Lord rejoice in his works! May my thoughts be pleasing to him. I find my joy in the Lord. R.

Second Reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans 8 : 8 - 17

People who are interested only in unspiritual things can never be pleasing to God. Your interests, however, are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him. Though your body may be dead it is because of sin, but if Christ is in you then your spirit is life itself because you have been justified; and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you. So then, my brothers, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live. Everyone moved by the Spirit is a son of God. The spirit you received is not the spirit of slaves bringing fear into your lives again; it is the spirit of sons, and it makes us cry out, ‘Abba, Father!’ The Spirit himself and our spirit bear united witness that we are children of God. And if we are children we are heirs as well: heirs of God and coheirs with Christ, sharing his sufferings so as to share his glory.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SEQUENCE

The sequence may be said or sung.

Holy Spirit, Lord of light, From the clear celestial height. Thy pure beaming radiance give.

Come, thou Father of the poor, Come with treasures which endure; Come, thou light of all that live!

Thou, of all consolers best, Thou, the soul’s delightful guest, Dost refreshing peace bestow; Thou in toil art comfort sweet;

Pleasant coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe.

Light immortal, light divine, Visit thou these hearts of thine, And our inmost being fill:

If thou take thy grace away, Nothing pure in man will stay; All his good is turned to ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour thy dew; Wash the stains of guilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray.

Thou, on us who evermore, Thee confess and thee adore, With thy sevenfold gifts descend:

Give us comfort when we die; Give us life with thee on high; Give us joys that never end.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia! Come, Holy Spirit; fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John 20: 19 - 23

In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, ‘Peace be with you,’ and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. ‘As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.’ After saying this he breathed on them and said: ‘Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.’

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
