Gospel Reflection By Dianne Bergant CSA (Liturgy Help)

Israel was called by God. To what was Israel called? To what were the crowds who followed Jesus called? To what are we called? To a covenant relationship with the Lord who is God, the one who is Lord alone. We have been invited into an intimate personal relationship with the creator of the universe, the one who plays with black holes and white dwarfs and at the same time with infinite interest has numbered the very hairs on our head (cf. Matt 10:30). We have heard this so often that it may have become commonplace. The marvel of it may escape our attention, because it has become just a part of our religious language. It is well that once in a while we are shaken to our senses, 'Hear, O Israel! The Lord is your God, the Lord alone!'

Baptism Preparation Session

If you wish to have your child baptised in our parish, it is a requirement that parents and godparents attend a preparation session prior to baptism. Next session for 2024 is : Sunday 10 Nov. Please email : admin@stpetersbedford.au for more Baptism Info.

In the Catholic tradition, November is traditionally a month of remembrance of the dead, especially those souls in purgatory, the Church has consistently encouraged prayers for the faithful departed and, during November, a list of the names of the dead is usually placed in the church so that the community can remember them in prayer.

November Mass Intentions :

Please place your November envelope in the box provided at the sanctuary. Thank you.

Please collect your copy of the Archbishop's Appeal Letter after Mass this weekend, read his message and please give generously to support the valuable work of the Church's social service agencies.

You may mail your gift in the reply-paid envelope provided or return your envelope and donation for a Special Collection which will be held at Mass next weekend.

You may also donate (securely) online by credit card: - www.lifelink.com.au

NO PARISH MORNING TEA FOR SUNDAY 10th NOVEMBER

There will be NO morning tea next Sunday following 8:30am Mass as 3 of our volunteers will be away. We have decided to have the final Morning Tea following 8:30am Mass on Sunday 24th November, as this will probably be the last 8:30am Mass before the 9:00am Mass begins.

We will require more volunteers to donate a plate food and their time if we are to continue to have a Morning Tea following the 9:00am Mass in 2025. We are hoping to have Morning tea on the first Sunday of each month starting in February 2025. Last month we raised $127.20 for our Bedford Conference. Many thanks for your generous support of this worthy cause.

A Reading from the book of Deuteronomy 6 : 2 - 6

Moses said to the people: 'If you fear the Lord your God all the days of your life and if you keep all his laws and commandments which I lay on you, you will have a long life, you and your son and your grandson. Listen then, Israel, keep and observe what will make you prosper and give you great increase, as the Lord God of your fathers has promised you, giving you a land where milk and honey flow. 'Listen, Israel: The Lord our God is the one Lord. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength. Let these words I urge on you today be written on your heart.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 17:2-4, 47, 51 R.v2

R: I love you Lord, my strength

1. I love you, Lord, my strength, my rock, my fortress, my saviour. My God is the rock where I take refuge; my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold. The Lord is worthy of all praise: when I call I am saved from my foes. R.
2. Long life to the Lord, my rock! Praised be to the God that saves me. He has given great victories to his king and shown love for his anointed. R.

A Reading from the letter to the Hebrews 7 : 23 - 28

There used to be a great number of priests under the former covenant, because death put an end to each one of them; but this one, Christ, because he remains for ever, can never lose his priesthood. It follows, then, that his power to save is utterly certain, since he is living for ever to intercede for all who come to God through him. To suit us, the ideal high priest would have to be holy, innocent and uncontaminated, beyond the influence of sinners, and raised up above the heavens; one who would not need to offer sacrifices every day, as the other high priests do for their own sins and then for those of the people, because he has done this once and for all by offering himself. The Law appoints high priests who are men subject to weakness; but the promise on oath, which came after the Law, appointed the Son who is made perfect for ever.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation John 14 : 23

Alleluia, Alleluia! All who love me will keep my words, and my Father will love them and we will come to them. Alleluia!

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark 12 : 28 - 34

One of the scribes came up to Jesus and put a question to him, 'Which is the first of all the commandments?' Jesus replied, 'This is the first: Listen, Israel, the Lord our God is the one Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbour as yourself. There is no commandment greater than these.' The scribe said to him, 'Well spoken, Master; what you have said is true: that he is one and there is no other. To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and strength, and to love your neighbour as yourself, this is far more important than any holocaust or sacrifice.' Jesus, seeing how wisely he had spoken, said, 'You are not far from the kingdom of God.' And after that no one dared to question him any more.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
