Our Motto : Believe, Be Seen, Become

Reflection... By Fr Jeronimo

SALVATION IS A GIFT TO ALL HUMANKIND

There is a question that is the heart in today's Gospel. "Lord, will there be only a few saved? that is the question that someone in the crowd ask Jesus, but the question he really ask is: "I will be save?"

Lord is salvation for only a few select people. O does someone like me have a change?

To respond to this question the constitution Dei Verbum from the Vatican II we help us to understand this concept of Salvation.

Salvation is seen as a gift from God, revealed through Scripture and Tradition. The Dei Verbum emphasizes that God has chosen to make Himself known, which is essential for our understanding of Salvation.

Dei Verbum presents salvation as a comprehensive process rooted in God's revelation through Christ, mediated by the Church, and accessible to all who respond in faith.

Salvation is offered to all humanity, the document emphasizes God's desire for all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

I would like to finish this weekend my reflection with this beautiful prayer of Thomas Merton: "My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going, I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself. And the fact that I think that I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so.

But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you, and I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing.

I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire, and I know that if I do this, you will lead me by a right road though I may know nothing about it.

Therefore, will I trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death. I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone. amen

First Reading from the prophet Isaiah

66 : 18 - 21

The Lord says this: I am coming to gather the nations of every language. They shall come to witness my glory. I will give them a sign and send some of their survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Put, Lud, Moshech, Rosh, Tubal, and Javan, to the distant islands that have never heard of me or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory to the nations. As an offering to the Lord they will bring all your brothers, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, on dromedaries, from all the nations to my holy mountain in Jerusalem, says the Lord, like Israelites bringing oblations in clean vessels to the Temple of the Lord. And of some of them I will make priests and Levites, says the Lord.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm : Ps 116 R. Mk 16 : 15

R: Go out to all the world and tell the Good News

1. O praise the Lord, all you nations, acclaim him all you peoples! R.
2. Strong is his love for us; he is faithful for ever. R.

Second Reading from the letter to the Hebrews

12 : 5 - 7, 11 - 13

Have you forgotten that encouraging text in which you are addressed as sons? My son, when the Lord corrects you, do not treat it lightly; but do not get discouraged when he reprimands you. For the Lord trains the ones that he loves and he punishes all those that he acknowledges as his sons. Suffering is part of your training; God is treating you as his sons. Has there ever been any son whose father did not train him? Of course, any punishment is most painful at the time, and far from pleasant; but later, in those on whom it has been used, it bears fruit in peace and goodness. So hold up your limp arms and steady your trembling knees and smooth out the path you tread; then the injured limb will not be wrenched, it will grow strong again.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 14 : 6

Alleluia, Alleluia! I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord; no one comes to the Father, except through me. Alleluia!

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke 13 : 22 - 30

Through towns and villages Jesus went teaching, making his way to Jerusalem. Someone said to him, 'Sir, will there be only a few saved?' He said to them, 'Try your best to enter by the narrow door, because, I tell you, many will try to enter and will not succeed. 'Once the master of the house has got up and locked the door, you may find yourself knocking on the door, saying, "Lord, open to us" but he will answer, "I do not know where you come from." Then you will find yourself saying, "We once ate and drank in your company; you taught in our streets" but he will reply, "I do not know where you come from. Away from me, all you wicked men!" 'Then there will be weeping and grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves turned outside. And men from east and west, from north and south, will come to take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God. 'Yes, there are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
