Christ The King
34th Sunday
Ordinary Time Year B

Our Motto : Believe, Be Seen, Become

Gospel Reflection By Dianne Bergant CSA (Liturgy Help)

Each one of the readings depicts the enthronement of Christ who is revealed as the messiah-king. Until his trial, Jesus himself refused to be identified as king. The royal messianic expectations that prevailed during his lifetime were predominantly political. If he assumed them, his followers might have instigated a rebellion against the Roman occupiers. When finally he did acknowledge his royal identity, he insisted that his rule was not like that of other kings.

Enthroned in heaven, Christ is revealed as the faithful witness to all that God has done and will continue to do. As first-born from the dead, his resurrection is the promise of our own resurrection. The dominion that he received from God is universal and exclusive and it will last forever. When he comes again on the last day, he will be revealed in all his glory.

Christ's kingdom is a kingdom of truth and life, of holiness and grace, of justice and love and peace. We need not stand at a distance from him, afraid to approach because of our human vulnerability. He is the one who loved us so much that he handed himself over to suffering and death so that we might live. He has already brought us to birth in this kingdom through Baptism and he has taught us how to live in it. Today we look to that time when his glory will be revealed, when we will all be gathered into the embrace of God, there to sing praise to that glory forever.

In the Catholic tradition, November is traditionally a month of remembrance of the dead, especially those souls in purgatory, the Church has consistently encouraged prayers for the faithful departed and, during November, a list of the names of the dead is usually placed in the church so that the community can remember them in prayer.

November Mass Intentions :

Please place your November envelope in the box provided at the sanctuary. Thank you.

is coming... Next Sunday 1st Dec
'Advent' means 'coming'. During Advent we celebrate God's love for us through the birth of Christ. Christmas embraces the past through Jesus' birth; the Holy Spirit present in the Church today; and, God's promise of His second coming in the future.

The wreath itself symbolizes how God's love for us is never changing, like the evergreen, that stays green all year. The circle shape symbolizes how God has no beginning and no end, just like a circle. He always has been, and he always will be.

When you attend weekly mass during Advent, you should be able to notice something different at the Sanctuary. What is it ??

No flowers... and an Advent wreath is placed near the Altar! The four candles represent the four weeks of Advent. Each weekend Mass during Advent we light 1 candle.

Morning Tea After 8:30 Mass
Sunday 24th November 2024

There will be morning tea following 8:30am Mass today. This will be the last Morning Tea for the year. We invite parishioners to kindly donate a gold coin as an ongoing fundraiser for the Bedford Conference of St. Vincent De Paul (Vinnies). A box will be placed near where the tea and coffee is served. At our last morning tea we raised $127.20. Many thanks for your generous support of this worthy cause. Below is an example of what the Bedford Conference of SVDP gave to our local community between 16th Oct. and 4th Nov, there were 11 visits

A Reading from the prophet Daniel 7 : 13 - 14

I gazed into the visions of the night. And I saw, coming on the clouds of heaven, one like a son of man. He came to the one of great age and was led into his presence. On him was conferred sovereignty, glory and kingship, and men of all peoples, nations and languages became his servants. His sovereignty is an eternal sovereignty which shall never pass away, nor will his empire be destroyed.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 92 : 1 - 2, 5 R. v.1

R: The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty

1. The Lord is king, with majesty enrobed; the Lord has robed himself with might, he has girded himself with power. R.
2. The world you made firm, not to be moved; your throne has stood firm from of old. From all eternity, O Lord, you are. R.
3. Truly your decrees are to be trusted. Holiness is fitting to your house, O Lord, until the end of time. R.

A Reading from the book of the Apocalypse
Revelation 1 : 5 - 8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the First-born from the dead, the Ruler of the kings of the earth. He loves us and has washed away our sins with his blood, and made us a line of kings, priests to serve his God and Father; to him, then, be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. It is he who is coming on the clouds; everyone will see him, even those who pierced him, and all the races of the earth will mourn over him. This is the truth. Amen. 'I am the Alpha and the Omega' says the Lord God, who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Mark 11 : 9, 10

Alleluia, Alleluia! Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Alleluia!

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to John 18 : 33 - 37

'Are you the king of the Jews?' Pilate asked. Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others spoken to you about me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?' Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. But my kingdom is not of this kind.' 'So you are a king then?' said Pilate. 'It is you who say it' answered Jesus. 'Yes, I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this: to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
